

SENATOR NEW'S NAME FIGURES IN MURDER TRIAL

Brotherhood Chiefs to Decide Wage Demand Action

RAIL PLAN OF WILSON HAS WIDE EFFECT

Wage Crisis to Be Delayed and Question Becomes Political Issue

LABOR MEN MAY URGE ANSWER TO DEMANDS

Opposition to Cummins and Esch Bills Likely to Become Stronger

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—Heads
of all railroad unions will meet Monday to decide their future action on the demands for wage increases now before the railroad administration, it was stated at the American Federation of Labor today.

The calling of the meeting is the result of President Wilson's decision made known Wednesday to turn the railroads back to their owners March 1. Previously the position of the workers has been that their demands must be answered before the roads
pass out of government control.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—President Wilson's decision to turn the railroads back to their owners
March 1 today brought into prominence two phases of the already complicated railroad problem.

First, the president's action has apparently postponed the "near crisis"
brought on by requests of railroad labor for more money with the demand that they receive an answer to these requests before the roads pass out of the government's hands.

Second, the railroad question has apparently been made a political issue. The two phases are interwoven since the railroad workers are threatening to carry their agitation for continuation of government control to the ballot box.

Until Wednesday night when the president's railroad proclamation
was issued, the workers had gone
on the assumption that the roads would go back by January 1. The shopmen were actively pressing demands for an increase before that date.

Other railroad workers, who were watching the outcome of the shop-men's efforts before pressing their own demands, believe their chance for an increase would be weakened
when the roads were turned back.

Time to Negotiate
Now that March 1st has been set for the date of return, there is left two months to negotiate.

The political phase of the railroad
question also involves the two million workers and their desires for a continuation of government control.
Headed by railroad brotherhoods, aided by Samuel Gompers, head of the American Federation of Labor, have asked both the president and congress for a two year continuation of government control. William Jennings Bryan has recently indicated that he is in sympathy with labor on the question.

The opposition of railroad as well as other classes of labor to the Cummins and Esch bills now pending before congress is also expected to make itself felt in an increased degree.

With the return of the railroads a certainty, the workers are expected to redouble their efforts to defeat these measures. They believe the nearness of the political campaign will strengthen them, since neither party wants to alienate a large class of voters.

SLIGHT GAINS SHOWN AT MARKET OPENING

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—The stock market today opened with leading issues showing slight gains over Wednesday's close. United States
Steel opened at 105, up 1/4; U. S.
Stores at 92, up 1/4; Studebaker at 104 1/4, up 1/4; Sinclair at 43, up 1/4;
Union Pacific, 12, up 1/4; New York
Central, 69 1/2, unchanged; Reading, 76 1/2, up 1/4; Southern Pacific, 104 1/4,
up 1/4.

Chicago Women to Extend Fight on High Food Cost

CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—The success of the egg boycott by Chicago women, has caused steps to be taken by them to beat down other articles of food. They refused to buy eggs recently and the price dropped 12 cents a dozen in one day and looked as if it was going much lower as there was no market for the product. Butter is the next on the list, the women say.

Among the leaders in the boycott are Mrs. Ida C. Wood, Elizabeth McCormick, director of the Memorial Fund and Mrs. Joseph T.
Bowen, president of the Women's City Club.

The women started action against the high cost of living after having been addressed by A. Mitchell Palmer, attorney general, who told them how to fight high prices.

"Don't buy," was his keynote.

"Think, talk and expect lower prices," he said, "and you will get them."

Palmer blamed economic conditions due to the war rather than the greed of profiteers for the high prices. He called for action on the following suggestion as a slap at the H. C. of L.

Organize fair-price committees through a state fair-price commissioner and the district attorney of every county.

Organize the women. Encourage conservation and economy.

Bring influence to bear to quiet industrial warfare.

JUDGE ASSAILS QUICK MARRIAGE EASY DIVORCES

Declaring that many people enter matrimony with as little thought as they would use were they to take a dip in the ocean, Superior Judge West, after granting the plaintiff in a divorce action on interlocutory decree, today scored hasty marriages.
"I think the evidence is sufficient for a divorce, but the court many times feels like delivering a lecture that wouldn't effect anybody, or do any good," said Judge West. "There isn't any earthly way I know of to reform society and get into the mind
of people that are contemplating marrying what it means. They just jump into it like you would go to the beach and jump into the water, without consideration, or without knowing whether it is over their heads or not, or without knowing whether it is cold or warm, whether congenial, or whether it isn't."

Incidentally, Judge West took a smart rap at the ease with which under existing laws, divorces can be obtained, declaring that the plaintiffs "can always make out a case, and the court's hands are tied." Referring to the evidence he had just read, Judge West said:
"You may take your decree, however," the court told Morris A. Cain, attorney for the plaintiff. "As I say,
the evidence is sufficient to justify it, and she (the defendant) isn't represented, and she didn't see fit to appear, and the chances are she wants a decree as much as he does,
and maybe more. I suppose they will both marry within a year and two months jump into the same thing."

CENTRALIA I. W. W. ARE GIVEN PLEADING STAY

TACOMA, Wash., Dec. 26.—Eleven I. W. W. charged with murder in connection with the armistice day
outrages at Centralia, were granted
a stay of pleading until December 27
by Superior Judge Wiley, sitting at Montesano.
George F. Vandever, attorney for the accused, had asked for a stay until January 2, but this was refused. The prisoners were remanded to the Gray's Harbor county jail,
where they were sent when the case
was transferred from the jurisdiction of the Lewis county court.

KAUFMAN BUYS MAGAZINE
NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—Herbert Kaufman has become owner and editor of McClure's Magazine. It was announced today. The publication was established by S. S. McClure in 1893. Kaufman, who is a writer, served as assistant secretary of the interior during the war and will resign from that office January 1.

HUBBY HUGGED TOO HARD.
LOS ANGELES, Dec. 26.—Mabel Moore, asking a divorce, testified
she was a kissless bride until her husband returned from the army.
Then he hugged her so hard it hurt
and she alleges extreme cruelty.

HIGH SCHOOL CAFETERIA BUILDING BURNS

Fullerton Group of Fine Structures Threatened
By Blaze Today

AT 11:30 o'clock this morning fire destroyed the cafeteria building
of the Fullerton Union High School and damaged the auditorium and threatened its destruction.

Nothing but hard work and good fortune saved the auditorium and other buildings of the fine high school group at Fullerton.

School was not in session. New ranges had just been installed in the cafeteria, and this morning fires were started for the purpose of burning off
the paint and getting rid of the odor
before school started.

The ranges were evidently placed
too near the wall of the building, which was built of wood. It is believed the wall caught fire from the ranges.

The cafeteria was burned to the ground. Flames from it reached two other buildings, the auditorium and a bungalow classroom. Scenery and other equipment on the stage of the auditorium were damaged.

The city fire department and employees of the school fought the fire.
Fire fighting equipment in the building was of great service. The auditorium is of concrete construction.
Had it been of wood it undoubtedly would have gone.

The cafeteria building loss is placed at $2,000 and the damage done
to the auditorium will total $1,000.

5 RED SYMPATHIZERS JAILED FOR PARADE

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—Five "red" sympathizers are in jail as a result of an attempted parade on Fifth avenue and picketing of fashionable churches in protest against incarceration of "political prisoners" yesterday.

The march was broken up almost before it began when Major Lorill and Spencer of the American Legion and two squads of police ordered the sympathizers to disperse.

SEARCH FOR GUNMEN AND JAIL PRISONERS

TOLEDO, Ohio, Dec. 26.—With two of the gang in jail, Toledo police were scouring the countryside
in search of others who took part in a sensational jail delivery here yesterday.

For nearly an hour the entire La-cous county jail was at the mercy of six armed thugs and four prisoners whom the thugs had released.

The gunmen shot down one man, threatened to kill others and boasted
of their crimes and past records.
After the delivery, two of the men surrendered without resistance
when their automobile stalled.

HAPGOOD RETURNS ON LEAVE FROM DENMARK

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—Norman Hapgood, United States minister to Denmark arrived here on the steamship Frederick VII from Copenhagen. He is on a leave of absence, according to a recent announcement
by the State Department.

Another passenger was Baroness Speck von Sternburg, widow of the former German ambassador to Washington. The baroness was Miss Lillian May Langham of Louisville, Ky.

LANE FAVORS GIVING STATE PARKS TO U. S.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—Support has been given by Secretary Lane
to the bill pending before the House Committee on Public Lands to accept on behalf of the United States the cession by California of jurisdiction over the lands in the Yosemite, Sequoia and Gen. Grant National Parks. The bill provides for commissioners who will have jurisdiction to hear and act on complaints of violation of laws or rules governing the parks.

7 Former German Steamships To Be Given To England

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—Seven former German liners now held in New York harbor, will be turned over to the British as soon as arrangements can be made for their transfer, the shipping board announced today.

The announcement was made in a letter from John Barton Payne, chairman of the shipping board, to Secretary of State Lansing.

The seven ships, with the Impera-tor, were allotted to the British by the peace conference. The Impera-tor was turned over to the British recently after some delay over American oil tankers held in German ports.

The ships to be turned over are the Graf Waldersee, the Sophien, Pretoria, Cap Finisterre, Mobile, Prinz Friedrich Wilhelm and Kaiser-
in Victoria.

The seven ships do not include those to be sold by the shipping board.

SECRET TRYSTS MAY FIGURE IN SLAYING PROBE

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich., Dec. 26.
—A story of a clandestine trysts told authorities by a Battle Creek girl, promised today to throw some light on the mystery surrounding the death of J. Stanley Brown, wealthy son of a former Detroit cigar manufacturer.

Brown's body, with several bullet holes in his neck and head, was found in his car on a lonely road near here Wednesday.

While county officials were reticent, it was learned today that valuable evidence was procured during the questioning of the Battle Creek girl, said to have been the sweetheart of one of Brown's closest friends.

It was reported Brown had visited this girl recently and she and her sweetheart had "split."

Authorities learned Brown was to have met the girl last Tuesday in Detroit, but failed to do so. She came here Wednesday in quest of him and was held by the sheriff.

The girl's sweetheart was reported to have been seen riding in Brown's machine with Brown twelve hours before the latter was killed.

Although he denied being with Brown after 9:30 Tuesday evening,
Sheriff Caldwell said today the man had not furnished a satisfactory alibi. He has, however, not been arrested.

BULLETINS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—Three women and two men arrested yesterday for alleged participation in a demonstration for the relief of conscientious objects today pleaded not guilty to disorderly conduct and were released on $500 bonds each.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—The first direct cable connection between the United States and Uruguay was opened today by the Central & South American Telegraph Company. The service was made possible by completion of the cable between Buenos Aires and Montevideo.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—Means for putting the United States army on an efficient peace-time basis will be studied at a conference of all department and divisional commanders called today by Chief of Staff March for January 12. War department plans and policies
for training, distribution and administration of the enlisted personnel and other important problems will be taken up.

PASADENA, Dec. 26.—Harvard's football eleven likes the sunshine of California but will take no chances on the water.
The team, which arrived at noon today, brought its own particular brand of drinking water from Boston. Harvard is due to clash with Oregon on January 1. The big athletes from Cambridge were in fine condition, according to "Pooch" Donavan, the veteran trainer.
None of the men are suffering from colds which they had contracted before leaving Harvard.

PREMIER TO FORCE HOME RULE PLAN ON IRISH

If Ulster Accepts Scheme Britain Will Protect Her Parliament

LONDON, Dec. 26.—Ireland may have to accept Premier Lloyd George's new home rule plan, introduced in the house of commons Monday, whether she likes it or not, an official close to the British premier declared in an interview.

The premier is prepared to force acceptance of his measure, this official asserted. Its passage by parliament was assured before the measure was submitted, he added.

Lloyd George, according to the official, is "heart and soul" for passage of some legislation which will
at least start settlement of the Irish question, he continued. The premier regards this problem as second in importance to winning the war.

It was believed in government circles, according to this source of information, that Ulsterites will accept the premier's proclamation
which provides for two legislatures, one for southern Ireland and another for Ulster, with a co-ordinating body to be known as a national assembly. If Ulster accepts the plan and its parliament is threatened by the Sinn Fein, the "entire British army" is available for protection of Ulster, it was asserted.

Can't Force Sinn Fein

The government realizes it is impossible to force the Sinn Fein section of Ireland to organize a parliament, the official said, but pointed out, it would be easy to offer them
the chance to deal with the Orangemen through a legislative body and grant the Ulsterites protection in case there was any attempt to interfere with them.

For the present it was said the premier is "forgetting Ireland" until resumption of parliament, which has been prorogued by the king until the new year.

The premier's home rule bill already has been drawn up and pigeon-holed.

Lloyd George, it was said, will devote his time now to domestic questions, the continent and the peace conference. He plans to leave for Paris to discuss peace problems.

The premier's advisers have assured him of a speedy passage of the Irish measure—probably within two months after the reassembling
of parliament—and by that time it was hoped most of the international questions will have been settled.

Moderate Sinn Feiners In Fear of Young Extremists

BY GEORGE MACDONOUGH
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

DUBLIN, Dec. 26.—"A certain element in the Sinn Fein volunteers is getting out of hand," a prominent leader of the moderate Sinn Feiners admitted today in an interview.

This element, he said, "threatens to do incalculable harm to the cause of Ireland, both here and in the opinion of the world."

While the leader made no direct admission, it was believed moderate elements believe this new radical faction may be partly responsible for the attempt on the life of Viscount French, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and the raid upon the plant of the newspaper Independent.

The group of young extremists
has become "restless and dissatisfied with the present policy" of the old Sinn Fein leaders, the speaker said.

"We are watching events anxiously because we are afraid they will do incalculable harm to the cause of Ireland, both here and in the opinion of the world," he said.

Moderate Sinn Fein leaders, it was known, fear the outbreaks of the extremists will bring harsher acts of repression from the British government. The unknown leader, it was asserted, favors a campaign of terrorism and planned a series of assassinations to follow the French outrage.

Los Angeles Woman Aged 119 Years Earning Own Living

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 26.—Eliza Allen, who keeps house for herself in a little tent on the outskirts of Los Angeles, lays claim to being the country's oldest woman making her own living.

"I was born in 1800 and remember five American wars," she said today.

If Mrs. Allen—who has outlived three husbands and all of her eleven children—is not mistaken about her age, she is now 119.

She makes her living selling magazines, and says she expects to sell them for another decade or two.

"What's my recipe for long life? Why the Lord has work for me to do," she said. "I have served the Lord faithfully since I was six years old and I'm not through yet."

GIRL SHOWERED WITH OLD LOVE NOTES TO WED

SANTA ROSA, Cal., Dec. 26.—A unique romance was brought to light with the announcement here of the engagement of Miss Juanita Storch and Mirza Ahmad Sohrab, formerly a secretary of the Persian Legation at Washington and now a member of the Persian-American Educational Society.

Sohrab is a linguist and the title Mirza is conferred on men of his country who make a study of art and literature. He and Miss Storch, a designer and musician who also is interested in art, met seven years ago while the Storchs were residing in Oakland.

The Persian kept corresponding with her the following year while he was in France. During the war he went to Palestine and while there was taken prisoner by the Turks and held for two years. During his imprisonment he continued to write to her, but the letters were not delivered. When the English took possession of the Holy Land, prisoners and letters were freed. Miss Storch shortly received a shower of missives.

Sohrab went to Egypt where he obtained a passport for America on a Japanese freighter. Arriving at New York forty days later he boarded a train and went to the Storch home in Rincon Valley.

The wedding will take place in April either in New York or Washington. The Persian and his bride will go on a tour of the world, during which he will write and the books will be illustrated by her.

COLLECTION OF HORNS FOR ANOTHER SALOON

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Dec. 26.—
The collection of horns owned by W. H. Keilman that decorated the walls of a local saloon before the era of prohibition, is being packed
for shipment to Havana, Cuba, where they will again decorate the walls of another saloon. The horns are valued at $90,000. Among them are the horns and head of a kadu, African antelope, that was presented to Keilman by Theodore Roosevelt upon his return from his hunt in Africa.

VIRGO STILL DENIES OPERATION ON WIFE

PAW PAW, Mich., Dec. 24.—Joseph Virgo, accused of killing his wife, Maud Tabor Virgo, by an illegal operation, continued to maintain his innocence of the crime today. Virgo has been questioned almost constantly since early Tuesday when Mrs. Sarah Tabor, his mother in law, declared her daughter's death resulted from the operation performed by the accused man.
According to attorneys Virgo stuck to his original story that he was asked to perform an operation by Mrs. Tabor, but refused.

"Joe always said he didn't want any brats running around the house," Mrs. Tabor said.
Virgo will go to trial in January,
according to present plans.

CASH GIVEN PRISONER THROUGH LAWYER

Deposition Says Mother of Alleged Slayer Married

HARRY "HAD CHIP ON SHOULDER," IS CLAIM

Solon Gave Youth Nice Talk
Once, Says Attorney
In Statement

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 26.—The question of the relation of Harry
S. New, alleged murderer of Frieda
Lesser, and United States Senator Lester S. New of Indiana, was delved into at this morning's session of New's trial.

After a deposition by Miss Martha Scudder, a sister of Harry New's mother, had been read, District Attorney Woolwine refused to stipulate that Senator New is the defendant's father, the district attorney declaring that a stipulation is unnecessary on the point in view of Miss Scudder's testimony.

Miss Scudder had stated in her deposition that Senator New was Harry New's father. She also revealed that Mrs. Burger, New's mother, had been married three times, in addition to her affair with Senator New.
Charles G. Williams, an Indianapolis attorney in a deposition said
that Mrs. Burger, New's mother, had
been married three times, in addition to her affair with Senator New.
Senator New, the boy's father, and related that Harry New had always "carried a chip on his shoulder," because of the circumstance of his birth.

Williams referred to Senator New
as "Big Harry."

New Left in Doubt Williams related an incident in which he said the defendant told him that Mrs. Burger's mother had told him all about the circumstances surrounding his birth and had endorsed Senator New. Williams said that Harry told him that later Mrs.
Burger had discussed his birth with him and had upbraided Senator New.
Williams said Harry was in doubt as to whom to believe.

Later he said Harry met Senator
New on the street in Indianapolis
and the senator put his arm around the boy, took him to his office and
"gave him the nicest half hour talk anyone had ever had."

In 1919, Williams said, Senator
New, through John W. Claypool, Indianapolis attorney, gave Harry $40
for a trip to Oklahoma City.

This morning's session of the trial was suddenly interrupted when District Attorney Woolwine told the court that he was suffering from an ulcerated tooth and could no longer stand the pain. Court adjourned until Monday.

ALLIES REPLY IS NOT BELIEVED ULTIMATUM

BERLIN, Dec. 26.—There were no indications in government circles today that Germany considers the Allies' reply to the latest German note
on the protocol as an ultimatum.
All the usual signs that precede
a crisis in German press statements did not appear, following receipt of the Allied answer demanding immediate acceptance of the protocol, with the matter of delivery of marine materials to be decided later. In fact, the press passed over receipt of the note almost without comment.

There may be more delays, with certain members of the cabinet
standing out against "concessions"
but in the last analysis of the situation it looks much like that at Weimar last June—with ultimate German signing of the protocol.

NEW MEXICAN PARTY

EL PASO, Dec. 26.—Plans for the formation of a labor party in Mexico, which, it is claimed, will control 1,000,000 votes, are informally announced in a recent issue of El Heraldo, a Mexican City newspaper.

Day After Christmas
The Winter winds howl 'round my cot,
Cold, piercing, freezing winds—they're NOT!
But balmy, soft as gentle spring—
Sure, in their wings new flowers they'll bring.
Thermometer at seventy stands,
'Tis seven a. m. Ho! All ye lands
And peoples, with who cold distressed,
By strikes and coal kings hard oppressed;
Come to this land. Be free from care.
Here, fuel's problems, fade in air.

CONCERT COMPANY COMPLETES TOUR
The Stearns-Gregg Concert Company including the Stearns-Gregg Trio and Pay Epperson, have just returned from a very successful three months' concert tour of the Western states. The Misses Stearns are living with their mother, Mrs. Ida M. Stearns at Newport Heights.
The following is a press notice regarding the trio from the Inyo Independent:
"Thursday night the largest audience of the week assembled in the hall to greet the Stearns-Gregg Concert Company. This was a truly delightful evening of entertainment and one that will long be cherished in the memory of every person present. The work of the Trio can only be described by the use of superlative expressions. Individually they are artists of a high order and if they show the standard aimed at by the Ellison-White Company, then we are for the Ellison-White Company. The members of the Trio are Miss Vere Stearns, violinist, Miss Ethel Stearns, cellist, and Miss Lorna Gregg, pianist. The ladies are to be commended for their excellent judgment in making up their program, which was well balanced and greatly pleasing to both the trained and untrained musical ear."
This trio will appear at the installation of officers of the Wilmington Masonic Lodge, Dec. 30, and at the joint installation of the two Long Beach Masonic Blue Lodges on January 8.

$400 JEWEL THEFT IS REPORTED HERE
Jewelry valued at more than $400 was stolen from the residence of Mrs. Aline Hinz, 701 South Ross street, this city, according to a report made by her today to Sheriff C. E. Jackson. The theft occurred some time during the afternoon of Wednesday of this week, Mrs. Hinz told the sheriff. A gold bracelet, set with a diamond worth $300, a gold ring set with a $100 diamond; and a gold neck chain were among the articles stolen, according to the report. Mrs. Hinz was absent from her residence during Wednesday afternoon. Dressing for dinner in the evening, she found that her jewel case had been rifled. When Mrs. Hinz made her report today she stated that several months ago, thieves entered her residence and stole a number of valuable papers. Later part of these documents, although not the most valuable, were mysteriously returned, she said. The theft of the papers occurred during a recent court action in which Mrs. Hinz was interested, she stated.

LOOK WHO'S HERE OR WAS OR WILL BE HERE
Christmas is a good glad time. Its spirit is all-pervasive. It draws people together in loving kindness and lavish hospitality. Yesterday, especially, and all of "Christmas week," Santa Ana homes were and will be filled with guests and visitors.
Especially is it a "home coming" time. Those who are temporarily away—their hearts turn to home and mother—especially to mother's Christmas dinner.
Among those who are home from University, college and schools, are: Keith Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Davis, from Stanford.
Miss Margaret Lyon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lyon, from Mills College.
Miss Hazel Pentacost from U. C.
Miss Isabelle Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Anderson, from U. C.
Ralph Beals, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Beals, from U. C.
Fred Forgy, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Forgy, from U. C.
Eugene Trago, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Trago, from Stanford.
Dave Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Anderson, from Stanford.
Walter Reeves, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Reeves, from U. C.

JAP FISHERMAN NOT WANTED AT NEWPORT
Japanese fishermen are taboo at Newport Beach and because of this fact a bunch of the little brown men who arrived at the port a few days ago expecting to engage in fishing there, this morning folded their nets and quietly went their way—where no one at the beach knows.
Port Los Angeles, near Santa Monica, has been closed because of the demolition of the wharf there and the Japanese went to Newport with a view to playing their vocation there. They expected to fish for J. P. Horem, who has located at Newport following the closing of Port Los Angeles. He is a wholesaler.
While there was no violent demonstration by Newport fishermen against the Japs, the latter were made to understand that their location at the Orange County harbor might lead to unpleasant conditions for them.

Their paraphernalia, unpacked in the old horse corral at Newport, the latter part of last week, was reloaded in a truck this morning, and the outfit shipped to another location.
Tonight and every Friday night—dance at the Elks Club. Let's go.

Berkeley High Squad Reaches Los Angeles For Long Beach Game

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 26.—Berkeley high school's football squad reached Los Angeles today ready to play Long Beach tomorrow afternoon at Pasadena for the state interscholastic title.

Berkeley invades the southland in the role of a team little known here. On the other hand Long Beach is known as the best interscholastic team south of the Tehachapi since the days of the Mitchell brothers and the late Ted Geissler at Los Angeles high school. For that reason Southern California fans are backing Long Beach to win.

The Berkeley men went to Pasadena soon after arrival here, to get ready for tomorrow's game. It will be played at Tournament Park, where Harvard and Oregon play New Year's Day. Advance sale of tickets indicated an attendance close to 10,000.

CALIFORNIA BOXER IS DEFEATED BY WELLING

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 26.—Joe Welling, Chicago, won a newspaper decision over Joe Benjamin, California lightweight, in a slow six round bout here yesterday. Benny Leonard was in Benjamin's corner. This was his second defeat within a few days and Billy Gibson, his manager, decided to send him back to California until the cold weather abates.

Other results in this city were: Johnny Murray, New York, defeated Joey Fox, British featherweight; Eddie Fitzsimmons, New York, won from Joe Borrell, Philadelphia; Bill Brennan, Chicago, defeated Sailor Petroskey, California; Harry Carlson, Boston, shaded Johnny Ray, Pittsburgh, and Hughie Hutchinson, Philadelphia, drew with Jimmy Walker.

TRENTON, N. J., Dec. 2.—Al Reich, New York heavyweight, stopped "Porky" Flynn, Boston, in the fourth round of a scheduled eight round bout here yesterday.

SHADE BEATS DALTON
LOS ANGELES, Dec. 24.—Although George Shade won a decision from Steve Dalton in the main event of the Vernon four round show last night, George Moss and Kid Booker furnished the real bout of the evening. It was a draw and a wild fight all the way.

COCHRAN AFTER CHAMP FIGHT IN LONDON

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—C. B. Cochran, British promoter, who arrived here yesterday on the Mauretania, said today that Georges Carpentier, European heavyweight champion, has signed a "binding contract" to fight Jack Dempsey in London some time next year.

The British sportsman is here to get Dempsey's signature to the contract. He said he would be in the United States about four weeks but did not believe it would be necessary to go to the Pacific coast to get in touch with Dempsey and his manager, Jack Kearns. He denied he had offered $300,000 for the proposed match, but said he believed he could make the offer "interesting" to the two jacks. He said he and Carpentier already had agreed on the amount the latter should receive.

LONDON, Dec. 26.—Georges Carpentier, European heavyweight champion, will make his first public appearance here tonight since his sensational defeat of Joe Beckett, British champion. The Frenchman will box a four round exhibition.

Three Americans appear on the card, which will be staged in Albert Hall. Pat Moore, bantamweight, will meet Eugene Criqui, who was substituted for Charles Ledoux when the latter was taken ill. Many experts rate Criqui even higher than Ledoux, although the latter holds the French title. Johnny Griffiths, welterweight, will fight Francis Charles, another Frenchman, and Ted Lewis will box Matt Wells.

Although Lewis was born in London, he is a naturalized American citizen and held the American welterweight title until Jack Britton stopped him about a year ago. Wells formerly was the British lightweight champion.

CARPENTIER MAY COME TO AMERICA ON TOUR

PARIS, Dec. 26.—Georges Carpentier, European heavyweight champion, is planning to come to the United States in March for a two months' exhibition tour, it was learned today.

The French boxer, who will be accompanied by his manager, M. Desamps, expects to give boxing exhibitions in several of the big American cities. It will be his first visit to the United States.

BECKETT WINS GAME.
VALLEJO, Cal., Dec. 26.—Making the only touchdown and then kicking goal, John Beckett, once captain of the Oregon football team, and now a lieutenant of marines, yesterday won a 7 to 3 victory for the Marines over the Mare Island sailors.

SWISS FIGHTING AGAINST GRIP OF ALIENS

BY HENRY WOOD
(United Press Correspondent)

BERNE, Switzerland, Dec. 26.—Switzerland is today putting up the greatest fight of her life to save herself from being "cosmopolitanized."

Never since the day that William Tell shot the apple off his son's head have the Swiss faced a situation in which they feel that their national and individual existence is so threatened as now, and that from a danger that no people, no nation, no race has ever yet faced—that of being "cosmopolitanized."

For even New York, with its million Italians, its several million Jews, and its hundreds and hundreds of thousands of various other nationalities, the city still remains essentially American.

But Switzerland is convinced she can hope for no such luck. If she permits herself to be swamped with the waves of people that are now pouring over her borders, she is fully persuaded that not only will it be a deadly hand in the end to find any trace of itself, unlike American New York, will lose all characteristics and all individualities that now mark Switzerland as Swiss.

Since the outbreak of the war Switzerland has become the Mecca of all European people seeking refuge for various reasons from various disasters that threaten them in their own country. In the early days of war, and as far as that is concerned, for years preceding, the great motive for moving into Switzerland and becoming a Swiss citizen was to escape obligatory military service in one's own country. Before the war this was only a sort of nightmare and caused probably the "Swissification" of only a few hundred or a few thousand Russians, Germans, Italians, French, Hungarians, Austrians and others.

When, with the outbreak of the war, this nightmare became a living reality, naturally the number of those who felt an irresistible charm for Switzerland increased and continued throughout the entire period of the war.

And now, following the armistice and peace, the number is even greater than ever although for different reasons. While Switzerland is still attracting hundreds and thousands of political refugees who for one reason or another are persona non grata in the new states, and even the old ones, that are growing out of the peace conference adjustment, yet by far the principal number now seeking to ooze into Switzerland are men of great wealth, usually war profiteers, who are seeking to escape the burden of taxation awaiting them if they continue their citizenship in any one of the countries that went to war and now has a war indebtedness to pay off.

While hundreds and thousands of the political refugees such as de-throned monarchs and discredited statesmen who escaped into Switzerland were usually able to bring with them a goodly portion of their fortunes, yet these latter are mere bag-interests of almost every country at atelles compared with the giganticheart except those of Switzerland.

sums which war profiteers and others are trying to smuggle over the Swiss frontier in order to escape the war-tax collector.

In any large European country this access to the population of a few hundred or a few thousand men of vast wealth would not constitute a danger and would be encouraged as a highly desirable addition to the nation's wealth and population.

In a small country like Switzerland, however, the situation is vastly different. The Swiss see clearly that all of this vast wealth now coming into the country will eventually be invested in Swiss industries. That means at the end of a year all the financial, industrial and economic life of the country will be in the hands of foreigners.

Then from private control to public control is but a step. The naturalization laws in Switzerland at the present time are very loose and easy. Only a very short time is necessary for all these wealthy foreigners to become Swiss citizens, to become eligible for all the public offices from the highest down.

As a consequence they are now putting up a valiant fight to save themselves from this "cosmopolitanization" largely through the revision of their naturalization laws and their regulations permitting foreigners to reside in their country.

Before the war there was probably no country in the world where it was easier to get naturalized either by honest or dishonest means than in Switzerland. All that was necessary was for a foreigner to take up residence in some Swiss canton and after two years the canton authorities had the right to grant Swiss citizenship. As a matter of fact, hundreds if not thousands were able by the payment of a little hush money to induce the local authorities in some out of the way canton not only to shorten this period of time but even to render actual residence unnecessary.

This possibility was greatly taken advantage of before the war by citizens of Austria, Italy and other countries where divorce laws do not exist or are very difficult. By going up to Switzerland and arranging with the local Swiss authorities to become naturalized in a remarkably short period of time, then secure a divorce under Swiss laws, they could return to their native country and either resume their original citizenship just as they pleased or not, and eventually remarry.

Projects Before Council
To remedy all of this, a number of projects are now before the Swiss federal council tending to render Swiss naturalization a most difficult thing to secure. Perhaps the most drastic of these provides that the foreigner must first demand from the Swiss federal council the right to naturalization which will still be granted as heretofore by the local cantons but only with the permission of the federal council. The latter will require that each applicant during the fifteen years preceding his request for naturalization shall have passed at least twelve years in Switzerland, including the last two just preceding his request.

Another project before the council provides that no naturalized citizen can hold a public office unless he has lived in the country at least twelve years between the age of five years and the time they attain their majority.

Already during the war, scores of the principal public offices in the various Swiss cantons were filled by naturalized Swiss who had the real times, yet these latter are mere bag-interests of almost every country at atelles compared with the giganticheart except those of Switzerland.

Check of $1,000 Is Gift to Pastor of First Presbyterian

A check for $1,000 was the Christmas gift of the congregation of the First Presbyterian church to its pastor, Rev. J. A. Stevenson. The check was presented to the pastor by E. B. Sprague, treasurer of the church, who in aptly expressing the appreciation of the members of the church for the service and leadership of the pastor said that the gift was to be used to assist in paying for a new Dodge automobile that the pastor had just secured.

Oil Stock that Is a Conservative Investment!

"Richfield Consolidated" With a Splendid Lease in the VERY HEART of the Big Richfield Gusher District

HERE ARE THE FACTS Analyze Them Carefully, Then Act

- 1—Commencing January 1, under Permit No. 8438 issued by the California Commissioner of Corporations, the Richfield Consolidated Oil Company of California will offer for sale at One Dollar per share, par value, 100,000 shares of its Capital Stock.
- 2—All moneys derived from the sale of this stock will be used solely for the development of oil upon the company's lease holdings.
- 3—The OPPORTUNITY to purchase this limited offering of Richfield Consolidated Stock is one of the FEW opportunities that the outside public will have to secure holdings in the great Richfield Gusher District—one of the richest districts in actual oil production per well, not only in California, but in the whole United States.
- 4—Practically every foot of land in this district already is controlled by the "Big" Oil Companies—the "Close" corporations in which you have no chance to buy oil stock.
- 5—Four wells, alone—all owned by the BIG Companies—already are producing more than 400,000 barrels of oil a month in this district.
- 6—The same BIG Companies are now putting down between FIFTY and SIXTY new oil wells.
- 7—Eminent geologists declare that the ENTIRE Richfield District is underlain by a vast subterranean "Sea of Oil."
- 8—The Richfield Consolidated Company owns a 66 2-3 acre lease in the VERY HEART of this wonderful oil district. This lease today is conservatively estimated as being worth a Quarter of a Million Dollars.

- 9—Big producing oil wells are located on THREE of the FOUR sides of our lease. Only 3500 feet to the northwest is the new 4000 barrel gusher of the General Petroleum Company; 6000 feet to the west are the famous Chapman and Kraemer gushers, owned by the Standard and Union Companies. To the east is the big new field being brought in by the Standard with three producing wells.
- 10—All available land on ALL four sides of the Richfield Consolidated lease already is controlled by the big companies, and WELLS ARE NOW BEING DRILLED on all four sides of us.
- 11—Should any of these near-by wells be brought in successfully, Richfield Consolidated Stock would undoubtedly jump from $1.00 to $10.00 a share over night.
- 12—Officers and directors of the Richfield Consolidated Oil Company are successful and highly representative business men of Los Angeles and Southern California—men of unquestioned integrity and business probity.
- 13—The confidence which the officers and directors of the Company, themselves, have in the future of the concern is attested by the fact that they already have purchased One Hundred Thousand Shares of stock of the Richfield Consolidated Oil Company.
- 14—Officers and directors of the Company do not receive any salary or remuneration of any kind for their services and EVERY DOLLAR paid in for stock of the Company is being expended for development purposes and the benefit of stockholders.

Family Gathering.

The Young, Fine and Lopez families enjoyed a family reunion and dinner yesterday at the Young home on North Main street. The rooms were prettily decorated for the happy celebration, a Christmas tree
with nice gifts for all being a feature. Covers were laid for fifteen.
On Christmas Eve Mrs. Olive Lopez was hostess to a large number of her relatives, her home being gay
with Christmas adornments, including a miniature tree. Red apples and candies were enjoyed.

News Boy Remembered.

Ladies of the five hundred block
on East Pine made Raymond Lieser,
one of the carriers for the Register,
happy this Christmas by sending him a box filled with popcorn, candies and many other good things. The happiness this present brought will mark one of the brightest spots in this boy's life, throughout the coming years and he wishes to express his sincere thanks for the remembrances.

William McKay, manager of the circulation department of the Register, is smoking some fine cigars today, a Christmas present from the paper carriers.

Handsome ties were given by the Register to each of the boys as it is the usual custom of the paper.

Married in Pasadena.

A wedding of unusual local interest took place at three o'clock
Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs.
W. M. Gordy, of Pasadena, at which ceremony Miss Mabel C. Gordy became the bride of John A. Henderson, Jr., of this city, the Rev. Blew, assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Pasadena officiating. Only the immediate relatives and a few close friends were present.

Christmas decorations in polinest-tias and holly were used and the bride wore a white georgette crepe dress, fashioned over silk, with a veil and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses.

Immediately after the wedding,
the bride and groom left for a short honeymoon trip, the bride wearing a smart navy blue broadcloth suit.

Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs.
Henderson will make their home in this city, where Mr. Henderson is assistant manager of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

Family Christmas Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lewis, 641 North Birch street, entertained with a delightful family Christmas tree yesterday. The tree was loaded with gifts for twenty-five relatives. These were distributed by the son and daughter of the host and hostess, assisted by one of the grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis.

After all of the presents had been given out, members of the party took turns in opening their packages.
Red and white brick ice cream,
home-made cake and cookies were served as refreshments.

The affair yesterday was exceptionally pleasant because of the presence of W. A. Spencer, their son, who is here from Pennsylvania and who has not been present at the family Christmas gatherings for five years.

Members of the party were Mr.
and Mrs. Geo. Matteson, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. C.
J. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. C. W.

Your Eyes
FIRST

In your daily work, in your pleasure—your eyes are first.
Without them, a great percentage of your activities
would be seriously limited.

You must realize then how important it is that you consider your eyes first.

And considering them first means to give them the best optical service you can obtain—which is "Loersch Ser-

THE YUCCA BLOOM

Today, out in the desert hills, I saw
A yucca plant lift up its shining bloom.
An Ishmael it stands, a grim saturnian
From beauty. Yet from poison spears that loom
From arid sand, and scorching
winds that blight,
It gathers faith to staunchly
raise on high
Each year its flowers, tall and waxy white,
Like altar candles gleaming
towards the sky.
Oh, grant that I, if ever life shall be
For me a desert waste, may bravely wear,
Above the sands that burn and thorns that prod,
A bloom sprung from my spirit's agony.
That each harsh obstacle may some day bear
A gleaming candle offered up to God.

Entertained at Long Beach

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Paul, their daughter, Mildred, and son, Cassius,
and Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Slabaugh and their daughters, Helen and Virginia, were guests yesterday of Dr.
W. M. Condon and daughter, Nora,
of the Virginia Hotel, Long Beach.
Other guests of Dr. Condon were:
Miss Mary Otis, and Mrs. Fletcher and her little friend, Elizabeth, of Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Sleeper Entertain

County Assessor and Mrs. James Sleeper entertained with a Christmas dinner yesterday. Among those present in addition to the host and hostess were their three sons, Lloyd, Boyd and James Sleeper; Mr.
and Mrs. Kenneth C. Morrison, Mr.
and Mrs. Claude Sleeper, Mrs. Lucy Madden, Mrs. Mary Brummett, Miss
May Sexton, and Mrs. Jerome
Faulkner and Miss Helen Faulkner.
The Sleepers had a Christmas tree in the afternoon, and presents were distributed.

Son Home For Christmas

The Christmas family reunion at the W. B. Tedford home on North Broadway yesterday was made more happy by the surprise arrival of their son, Malcolm Tedford, of San Francisco, who had not eaten turkey
with his "folks" for three years.
Covers were laid for fifteen guests.

Gives Jolly Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Murphy, 116
East Santa Clara avenue, gave a Christmas chicken dinner yesterday for the following guests: Mr.
and Mrs. W. A. Spencer, Miss Leta
Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lewis and Fred Smith.

After dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bicknese joined the party and they all went to Long Beach for the afternoon.

Christmas Dinner Party

Mrs. G. H. Wollaston, 642 North
Ross street, had as dinner guests yesterday Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Ramsdale, Mr. and Mrs. H. Y. Evans and son, Horace, Mr. and Mrs. William Wollaston, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wollaston, Miss Harriette Wollaston, and Wilbur Getty.

Kellogg Christmas Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kellogg, 502
West Santa Clara avenue, entertained with a pleasant family gathering on Christmas day.

The home was in festive attire,
a beautiful little Christmas tree adorning one corner of the dining room.
A doll, attired as Santa Claus with a tiny tree in his arms, occupied the center of the table. Favors were cunning red boxes filled with nuts
and candy.

The delicious dinner, consisting of roast chicken, cranberry sauce and many other good things, was much enjoyed, the dessert course being brick ice cream and fruit cake.

After dinner, Christmas gifts were distributed and, after the mysterious packages had been opened and admired, the remainder of the afternoon was spent in visiting and in games with the children.
Those who enjoyed this delightful occasion, besides the host and hostess and their three children, Miss Clara, Charles and Willard, were Mrs. D. E. Kellogg, Miss Rosaline
Kellogg, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kellogg and grand-daughter, Evelyn.

At Henry Diers' Home

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Diers of North Main street gave a 1 o'clock Christmas turkey dinner yesterday and a family Christmas tree. Holly, greenery and roses gave the desired Christmas cheer to the interior of the beautiful home.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Diers, Jr., of Los Angeles, Mrs. Arthur Pease
and family of Orange, Miss Eva Thurn and Wm. Diers. The baby of the family, who was really the guest of honor at the Christmas tree celebration, was Elizabeth Pease.

Juvenile Children Thankful.

The children of the Juvenile home
were given a delightful time Christmas, a Christmas tree being donated by the Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church. The class also gave presents to each child.

The Rainbow class of the Christian church presented each child with gifts. These girls have given Thanksgiving and Christmas donations regularly for three years. The class often takes the children of the home to the beach, also.

Officials and clerks of the court house sent donations for the celebration at the home; also the Campfire girls of Capistrano.

To these, and any others who helped toward the enjoyment of the inmates of the Juvenile home, the children express their thanks.

Pretty Home Wedding.

Christmas Surprise Consists Of Two Daughters-In-Law

TWO daughters-in-law—this was the finest Christmas surprise recorded in Santa Ana. They came to Deputy Sheriff and Mrs.
J. F. Fowler of 302 South Sycamore street.

They had had one of the daughters-in-law ever since last June,
but they didn't know it until yesterday when their son, William H. Fowler, arrived with her from Dallas, Texas.

It was a big Christmas at the Fowler home. The two sons had telegraphed that they were coming home. Last Christmas J. Herbert Fowler was overseas. He arrived home last spring and after a visit with his parents here secured a position at Oakland. He was married there last Thursday to Miss Jessie Piper, and on Friday he and his bride started for Santa Ana, arriving on Saturday.

William has been in the oil fields near Dallas, Texas, for some time. He kept the news of his wedding last June quiet, so far as his relatives here were concerned. A telegram received from him two or three days ago saying that he was coming made no mention of the bride, so that when he arrived and introduced his wife,
he was fully satisfied with the surprise that he had arranged for his father and mother.

Present also at a big Christmas dinner yesterday at the Fowler home were Mrs. Fowler's brothers, Henry Neel of Los Angeles
and W. T. Neel of Mexico, and W.
T. Neel's son, Dr. W. C. Neel, and daughter, Miss Anna Neel, both of Los Angeles.

the submarine base at New London, Conn. After a very brief honeymoon in Southern California, Lieut.
Davis and his bride will make their home in New London, Conn.

The home was tastefully decorated and everything was "Christmassy." Rev. John Oliver of the First Methodist Church of Santa Ana and a long time friend of the bride's family, performed the ceremony.

After the service a fine Christmas dinner, including turkey and all its regal trimmings, was served to the bride party. The party consisted of Miss Etta Mae Francisco and Jack J. McConnell of Los Angeles, who acted as bridesmaid and best man; Mrs. G. S. Golder of Fullerton, and the bride's only sister from Kingman, Arizona; and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Machlebe; Rev. and Mrs. John Oliver and Rollin Golder.

Mr. and Mrs. Flagg Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Flagg had as one o'clock dinner guests yesterday
Miss Mabel Ziegler of Anaheim,
Miss Carrie Jones of Capistrano,
Don S. Long of Los Angeles, Geo.
Pollard of San Pedro and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Gordon of this city.
In the evening, the party went to the dance at Elks' hall.

Philathea Class Tree

One of the happiest Christmas gatherings was a chicken dinner given by Mrs. Neil Beisel at her lovely country home on Mitchell avenue, Tustin, to the girls of the Philathea class of the First Baptist church on Tuesday evening.

Covers were laid for twenty-eight,
including their teacher and four guests, Mrs. F. G. Davies, Mrs. A. A.
Cattland, Mrs. Geo. Minter and Mrs.
Ida McMiller.

The delicious dinner was served at small tables, each centered with a miniature Christmas tree, lighted with tapers. Place cards and menus were in red and white.

After dinner, a splendid Christmas program was enjoyed beginning with the devotionals in which Miss Marguerite West told the Christmas story, as given by Lew Wallace.

Following this, strips were given out and read, telling of the origin of Christmas customs.

Mrs. Beisel read an interesting article "on the world's condition when Christ was born."

Lyle Roberts played two splendid selections on the clarinet and Miss Jennie Lasby gave a Christmas legend in her usual charming manner.

The Christmas tree was then enjoyed and the presents exchanged.
Mrs. Beisel was assisted by Mrs.
H. J. Roberts and Misses Grace Roberts and Mame Havens, of Long Beach.

Gives Christmas Breakfast

Miss Mary Flora, 601 East Walnut street, entertained a few friends at a Christmas breakfast. Those honored were Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Gowdy and son, Max, of Melbourne, Mrs. B. F.
Clouser of Orange and Miss Myra Gundlach of Marshall Town, Iowa.

Mrs. Gowdy and Mrs. Clouser are sisters of Miss Flora. In the afternoon the party motored to Newport Beach, where Miss Gundlach had her first glimpse of the ocean.

Great Hawaiian Play Will Be At Temple Two Nights

Scene from "A Daughter of the Sun."

Big Road Show Coming For Two Nights Carries Car
of Own Scenery

Among the outside or island possessions of the U. S. A., none is so wonderful as the Hawaiian group. An atmosphere of sunshine, a climate that is as perfect as any on earth, a native population that have made for themselves a place as possessing a style of music that has had a most wonderful appeal, also as expert and daring boatmen and swimmers.

The new play, "A Daughter of the Sun," a tale of an Hawaiian Butterfly, deals with these island people.
The play is from the pen of Lorin Howard and Ralph T. Kettering and is one of mystery. The play is pretentious as to size, for the cast is large, besides a troupe of native Hawaiian musicians. The story of the play is a love story of most compelling proportions. The handling of the theme is done in a very clever manner. Of all of the present season plays this one is surely a relief from sex plays galore.

"A Daughter of the Sun" will be seen at the Temple Theatre, Monday and Tuesday nights, December 29th and 30th, and is the first big road show of the season, carrying a car load of their own special scenery.

BIRDS JEOPARDIZED
BY USE OF AIR RIFLE

Christmas, with its influx of gifts of air rifles, made to small boys, has had the result of placing the lives of various and sundry small robins and other birds in jeopardy, according to reports received today at the office of City Marshal Sam Jernigan and Sheriff C. E. Jackson. In addition to this, a number of windows have been "pinned" by B-B shot, released from air guns, reports to the police state. There is a city ordinance against the shooting of air rifles inside the city limits. The use of slingshots also is under the ban, it was stated.

$2500 FORECLOSURE
ACTION IS BROUGHT

With L. A. Lewis and Hass and Dunnigan of Los Angeles as his attorneys, and through a suit which was filed in superior court today against Gertrude S. Hiles, George Simson will seek the foreclosure of a mortgage given to secure an alleged promissory note for $2500. Property in the Fairview tract is involved in the action. In addition to the principal of the note, Simson asked judgment for interest at 7 per cent from October 7, 1919, as well as $250 attorneys' fees. The note was alleged to have been signed at Anaheim on October 7, 1916.

SEEKS ESTATE LETTERS.

With C. W. Hall of Los Angeles as her attorney and through a petition which was on file today, Ethel M. Armstrong will seek letters of administration in the estate of Joseph Lee Armstrong, who died on November 15th, leaving property at Fullerton and in Contra Costa county.

This team is Rall's All-Stars of Los Angeles. They won from Pasadena last Sunday, and also won in Santa Barbara three weeks ago.

CARRIERS ARE MAKING
BIG DELIVERY TODAY

This afternoon postal carriers are making one of the biggest parcels deliveries ever made from the Santa Ana post office. The accumulation over Christmas, on which day no parcels were delivered, together with a big parcels post mail that came in this morning, is giving the carriers their first class mail only this morning, and will get out the parcels this afternoon. One carrier alone has packages that occupy no less than sixty-five cubic feet.

for the recovery of
Dr. Arthur Lachman

A chemist of San Francisco, who has disappeared without clue. It is believed that he is suffering from some form of mental aberration, possibly loss of memory or double identity.

Missing Since Noon, Dec. 11

All persons who have seen Dr. Arthur Lachman since noon, December 11th, are urgently requested to communicate promptly with Chief of Police, San Francisco.

Search everywhere

In cases of double identity persons have been known to have wandered far and to assume occupations entirely different from those to which they are accustomed. The search should be carried to every conceivable locality.

Railroad and steamship employees, telephone and telegraph operators, mail and express carriers, census takers and solicitors, hospital attendants, employers of labor and all those who come in contact with large numbers of persons in their daily occupations are requested to keep a sharp watch for Dr. Lachman. PLEADS GUILTY TO CHARGE OF THEFT

Ralph Cabejal, who was held to answer from justice court in Fullerton township on a charge of robbing Angel Gutierrez of $55, entered a plea of guilty when he answered to his arraignment before Superior Judge Williams today and asked for probation. County Probation Officer J. H. Scott has begun an investigation of references given by Cabejal and will make his report to Judge Williams when Cabejal is brought into court at 9:30 Wednesday for final disposition of his case.

Jose Moreno, against whom an information had been filed, charging him with having been an accomplice of Cabejal in the same robbery, requested the court to appoint an attorney for him. Judge Williams appointed E. J. Marks of Fullerton. It was expected that Moreno would be brought into court again late today and that he would then enter his plea. Moreno told the court he could produce a witness who would turn him an alibi.

ALLEGED ROBBERS OF BEACH HOUSE HEARD

Certified to the juvenile court by Justice John B. Cox, Albert Kahn, 16, and Clarence Anderson, 17, both of San Diego, and charged with burglarizing an Arch Beach house belonging to Robert M. Simon, of Santa Ana, were today declared wards of the juvenile court of this county by Superior Judge Williams and ordered transferred to the juvenile court of San Diego county. Kahn told the court that he and Anderson were on the way from Long Beach to San Diego when they arrived at Arch Beach. They had no money, and entered the Simon house for the purpose of securing something to eat, Kahn said. Instead, they found two revolvers and a watch, which they took with them to San Diego, according to Kahn. "You two boys are wandering around too much," Judge Williams told them. Kahn said that as soon as he arrives at the age of 17 he intends to join the navy. Anderson had the same intention, he said, but was rejected on account of an infirmity of his right eye.

ACTION OVER $5000
NOTE IS DISMISSED

Dismissal was on file today in an action brought by the T. J. F. Boege Company to foreclose on a mortgage alleged to have been given by Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Conley to secure an alleged promissory note for $5000, claimed to have been signed at Anaheim on April 17, 1916. The plaintiff sought a judgment of the principal of the note, with interest at 7 per cent since October 17, 1918, together with $500 attorneys' fees. H. V. Weisel of Anaheim was attorney for the plaintiff.

AUTOS CRASH.
While the automobile of Edward W. Murphy was parked alongside the Long Beach boulevard, a machine driven by J. W. Shumate collided with it, according to a report on file today at the office of Sheriff C. E. Jackson. Slight damage was done to the cars, the report said.

JAY GRAY SHOT
THROUGH HEART
DIED GAME

Though shot through the heart, Jay Gray calmly turned his machine gun over to his assistant. Thus, he died like the true soldier he was.

That he died bravely and in good spirit, fighting to the last, is word that has come to his father. J. C. Gray, of 413 Cypress street, from battalion mates of Jay Gray, who now live in San Francisco.

Jay Gray went overseas with the Twenty-ninth Canadian Battalion, and he fought through many hard battles and for many long months. It was after he was wounded and had recovered and was again fighting that he was killed.

Something of the details of Jay's death is brought to the father in a letter just received by him from A. Mackay Scott, president of the Southern California Products Company of Orange.

Scott met two mates of Jay Gray in San Francisco. It is J. C. Gray's intention to look these men up, and secure from them as much information as possible concerning the burial place of his son.

"I may decide to go overseas and see my son's grave," said the father today.

The letter from the Orange man, himself a veteran of Canadian fighting, is treasured by the father, as well it may be. It reads as follows:

Dear Sir: A short time ago, while visiting in San Francisco, I met several members of the 29th Canadian Battalion who were close friends of your son, affectionately known as "Skinny" Gray. I am sure you will be glad to learn that he was held in the very highest esteem by all who knew him. The conversation turned to him several times, and they remarked about the bravery and good spirit with which he gave up his life for the cause. As you no doubt know, he was shot through the heart, but duty was so strongly instilled in him that he turned over his machine gun to his assistant, the number two of his team, and when he was found, his usual smile was on his face.

The writer served for three years and was with the 72nd Seaforth Highlanders, and I regret exceedingly that I did not have the pleasure and honor of knowing such a sterling character as your son.

The two battalion mates to whom I refer are J. B. McCourtney and G. E. Brabrandt of San Francisco.

I trust you will pardon my typing this letter, my hand would not be as steady as it should be while writing it.

Respectfully yours,
A. MACKAY SCOTT.

1919 Christmas Is Most Perfect People Of This Section Have Ever Known

VESTERDAY was the greatest Christmas in the history of Santa Ana.

It was a day of great joy for little tots and grown-ups. Bountiful in giving, filled with Christmas spirit, the people of Santa Ana enjoyed every waking minute from early Christmas Eve until the day was done.

The singing of Christmas carols by groups of singers and the ringing of the bell of the Catholic church heralded the beginning of Christmas Day.

Members of the orchestra of the First Methodist Church went into the tower of the church, and music floated out upon the neighborhood, ushering in Christmas morning.

Christmas dinners and family Christmas trees were enjoyed everywhere. It was a perfect day, perfect in weather, perfect in spirit. Many hundreds attended the community singing festival Christmas Eve, many hundreds witnessed the football game yesterday afternoon, and many hundreds enjoyed automobile rides in the afternoon or attended movie shows during the day or evening.

Elks' Christmas Tree.

One thousand, four hundred and fifty children were given presents of candy and toys by Santa Ana Lodge No. 794, B. P. O. E., Wednesday afternoon. It was today announced by Secretary W. W. Wasser. Including mothers who chaperoned their little ones to the affair, more than 2,000 persons were present during the afternoon. The "rush" of youngsters was so great that they had to be admitted in four groups to the Elks' hall, where there was a large Christmas tree and a Punch and Judy show. The committee having arrangements in charge was headed by R. C. Peterson. Among those who assisted in distributing presents among the children were W. W. Wasser, C. T. Johnson, W. R. Gordon, Cood Adams, F. J. Adams, A. R.

Potatoes, one can of corn, one can of peas, one pound of cranberries, one and two loaves of bread, one and one half cakes, roast meat, one pound coffee, one pound oleomargarine, celery, oranges, walnuts and pies.

Thirty small boxes, filled with candy, apples and oranges were distributed to inmates of the county jail.

The Army will hold its Christmas tree for the Sunday school tonight at its hall in the Register building at 7:30 o'clock. Santa Claus will be present to delight the fifty or sixty members of the Sunday school.

PASTOR AND FAMILY
WILL MOVE TUESDAY

Rev. J. A. Stevenson and family have rented a residence at 627 North Ross and will move to it next Tuesday. Rev. Stevenson recently sold his home at 1016 North Broadway to W. L. Salisbury. The pastor and his family will occupy the new location temporarily.

VALUE OF USED
ON CARE

When the average person purchases an automobile he does not expect to sell it until it is worn out, but, according to Bobby Burns, "The best laid plans of mice and men gang aft a-gley." It is frequently necessary for them to sell and sell quickly. If the average owner realized what a difference the use of the car makes in its resale price he would take the best possible care of it.

This is the opinion of Robert L. Shrader, Los Angeles used car dealer, and said to be one of the best informed men in the business. Shrader's specialty is guaranteed, reconstructed Fords, but he handles many other makes.

"There is a vast difference between use and abuse of a car," said Shrader. "A used car, if properly cared for, is just as good an automobile investment in every respect as a new car. The function of the used car dealer is to brighten their bodies, again."

IRVIN BUYS LESTER
RESIDENCE ON MAIN

The former residence of Cal. D. Lester at 1808 North Main street has been sold to J. J. Irvin and it is understood that Mr. Irvin will occupy it. Mrs. Lydia Gray, of Orange, was the seller.

Howard Walker, Nash agent, is vacating the premises today, moving to Spurgeon street.

OIL GUSHER ON NEWPORT MESA

A rumor that a big oil gusher had been brought in on the Newport mesa created some little stir in this city this morning. Investigation proved that there was no foundation for the report.

Indications at the Liberty, at Newport Heights, are very favorable. There is lots of gas and the oil showing is growing better as the drill goes deeper, according to reports.

The Interstate, on the Newport Mesa, which is the tract to the right of the Newport boulevard going to Newport Beach, cemented its well a few days ago and has not resumed drilling as yet. The company is starting its second well about one mile north of No. 1.

According to the best information obtainable this morning, the H. K. and T. company well near the head of Newport bay and west of Irvine is still showing good indications, but no gusher has developed there.

Thousands at Community Song Service Sing Praise of Christ, New Born King

WITH the beauty of the park enhanced for Christmas time with a huge star at the top of a stately cedar, with streamers of colored lights from the top to the bottom of the tree, Birch Park on Christmas Eve was a fitting spot for the great gathering of people who enjoyed together the Christmas community song service for 1919. In his words of welcome, Mayor Mitchell declared that it was the city's desire that those present "live in the heights," that they forget all sordidness and dwell in the realms of music and spiritual uplift.

And so they did, for they were thrilled with beautiful music and inspired by words of Christmas cheer and exaltation.

It was a big crowd that gathered to celebrate the third community Christmas tree arranged for the citizens of Santa Ana by the Santa Ana Musical Association.

The real Christmas spirit was everywhere apparent, as the colored lights from the gaily-lighted Christmas cedar reflected upon the happy faces of those gathered to celebrate the "birthday of a King."

The program commenced at six o'clock with appropriate selections by the Elks' orchestra, led by C. C. Langley with Julian Matthews as solo cornetist, a feature adding greatly to the beauty of the music. "The Holy City" was especially beautiful.

Gustlin Leads Singing
The community singing was led by Clarence Gustlin, president of the Santa Ana Musical Association, under whose auspices the fine program was given. The numbers included "O Come All Ye Faithful," "Joy to the World," "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing," and "Battle Hymn of the Republic," the orchestra accompanying.

Madame Ruzena Sprotte, the celebrated Bohemian contralto, to whose coming music lovers had looked forward with a great deal of pleasure, entirely came up to expectations and thrilled her hearers with her lovely renditions of the aria from the opera "Mignon," "Dost Thou Know That Fair Land," Mr. Gustlin accompanying. The beautiful number "The Birthday of a King," by Neidlinger was a gem and she also gave three numbers by American authors, Cadman's "Dawning," "Mother, My Dear," by Tschamano and "The Open Road," by Gertrude Ross.

One of the loveliest of the musical numbers was "Silent Night! Holy Night," softly sung by the choir and the First Congregational choir with Mrs. Russell Coleman as soloist, sang a beautiful anthem, "Sing, Oh Heavens," by Tours, and a cantata selection from "The Adoration," by Nevill, the solo work being done by Mrs. F. W. Slabaugh and Maurice Phillips, basso.

The invocation, a prayer that brought each heart closer in touch with the spirit of the occasion, was by Rev. John Oliver, pastor of the First Methodist church.

600 Autos Uptown, Every Theatre Seat Is Filled

Santa Ana's advantage as a trading center was emphasized more than ever during the Christmas shopping season, when unprecedented crowds visited local shops and new high sales marks were recorded. Did you ever see such crowds as jammed Santa Ana streets and stores during the last four days of the rush, Saturday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday? There were from 1000 to 1500 automobiles parked in the shopping district practically all the shopping time during those four days, sidewalks were jammed just like the big city, clerks were rushed to death, and most customers even then had to wait to be waited on. There never before was such a buying epidemic in Santa Ana as closed on Wednesday night, and many merchants, completely tired out from their strenuous labors, declare their Christmas sales were double those of a year ago.

All Theaters Were Filled
On Christmas Day, with the shopping and gift giving at an end, Santa Ana folks and those of adjoining communities gave themselves over to making it a merry occasion, and places of amusement enjoyed an unprecedented attendance. The five Santa Ana theaters, yesterday afternoon and last night, played to packed houses, and it is estimated from 6000 to 7000 people attended the various shows. Last night the attendance was unusually heavy and shortly after 7 o'clock every seat in every theater was filled, and still there were hundreds of people on the street, going from theater to theater in the hope of getting accommodations. Some of these returned home but most remained uptown and the second shows at 9 o'clock were also well patronized. There was also a good crowd at the dances and skating rink.

There was, as usual on a gala occasion, a large number of automobiles parked uptown last night, with only the theaters and confectioners open for business, and a Register reporter, assisted by City Marshal Jernigan, conducted an informal census of the cars between 7 and 9 o'clock.

Interesting Results
The count showed some interesting results. There were 518 automobiles parked uptown at time of the count, of which number probably 20 to 25 were from other states.

There were also twelve motorcycles, and five horses and buggies. Approximately a hundred cars were moving about the streets, and these were not included in the list of those parked at the curb. It is also interesting to note the locations where most of the cars were parked in the something like forty blocks comprising the downtown business district.

The count showed the following:

Fourth street—Second to Birch, 19; Birch to Broadway, 40; Broadway to Sixth, 3; Sycamore to Main, 6; Main to Bush, 27; Bush to Spurgeon, 41 (3 motorcycles); Spurgeon to Fourth, 20; east of French, 4; total, 165.

Third street—Broadway to Sycamore, 2; Sycamore to Main, 9 (1 Montana, 1 horse vehicle); Main to Bush, 30 (1 Colorado, 2 motorcycles); Bush to Spurgeon, 31 (1 Colorado, 1 horse vehicle); Spurgeon to French, 19 (1 Iowa); total, 91.

On Main Street
Main street—Second to Third, 16; Third to Fourth, 33; Fourth to Fifth, 14; Fifth to Sixth, 4; total, 67.

Bush street—Second to Third, 22 (1 Nebraska, 1 motorcycle); Third to Fourth, 20; Fourth to Fifth, 7; total, 49.

Spurgeon street—Second to Third, 16 (1 Connecticut); Third to Fourth, 34 (1 Nebraska); Fourth to Fifth, 10; total, 60.

Birch street—Third to Fourth, 26; Fourth to Fifth, 14; total, 40.

Sycamore street—Third to Fourth, 4; Fourth to Fifth, 4; Fifth to Sixth, 11; total, 19.

Broadway—Third to Fourth, 0; Fourth to Fifth, 4; total, 4.

Fifth street—East of Main, 1; west of Main, 0; total, 1.

Sixth street—East and west, none.

French street—Third to Fourth, 3 horse vehicles; Fourth to Fifth, none.

Central Auto Park—3 trucks, 3 motorcycles, and 22 cars (1 South Dakota, 1 Oregon, 1 Nevada, 1 Iowa).

RABBIT SKIN DEMAND IS HEAVY FROM EAST

MARQUETTE, Mich., Dec. 26.—Demands from eastern concerns for unlimited quantities of rabbit pelts has revived a former industry in Northern Michigan. One concern is notified commission men that it is in the market for 10,000,000 rabbit skins during the 1919-1920 season. Farmers' children in farming sections have decided to fill small orders are sending their addresses to the Department of Agriculture, which transmits such information to fur and pelt dealers. State and county officials are encouraging the killing of rabbits, which were numerous and destructive in agricultural districts this summer.

JORDAN IS DROPPED BY EXCLUSION LEAGUE

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 26.—State Senator J. M. Inman, president of the California Oriental Exclusion League, has ordered that the name of Frank C. Jordan, Secretary of State, be dropped from the membership roll of the organization's general committee. Jordan has refused to resign. Inman said the request for Jordan's resignation was on account of the stand the secretary of state had taken in favor of importation of Chinese laborers.

PAYS $140 FOOT FOR SYCAMORE STREET LOT ON CORNER

A. J. Lasby and F. W. Wiesseman Purchase Holzgrafe Property at Second

That there is an increasing demand for Sycamore street property between Fourth and First streets, is evidenced by recent deals that have resulted in several valuable business lots passing to the hands of new owners.

The latest deal is one of this week in which Fred Holzgrafe sold the northeast corner of Sycamore and Second to A. J. Lasby and F. W. Wiesseman. The lot is 50x125 and the consideration was approximately $7,000.

Holzgrafe's wagon and blacksmith shop is located on the corner and there will be no interruption in the business, at present at least. The new owners have bought the property with a view to holding it, with possible improvement later on. Immediate improvement is not contemplated, is reported.

L. J. Carden and Chas. Seaman a few months ago paid $300 a front foot for a 25 foot lot on the northeast corner of Sycamore and Third. Carden and Seaman paid $300 per front foot for their property while Lasby and Wiesseman paid at the rate of $140 per front foot.

The deal was handled through Carden & Liebig, which firm reports other sales as follows:

Chas. F. Severance, residence at 620 E. Pine, to Henry Phillips, $3,000.

The F. S. Holbrook residence at 510 Cypress to J. A. Stevens, $3,000.

GALBRAITH SELLS WEST THIRD HOUSE

The residence of N. L. Galbraith, 1055 West Third street, has been sold to J. E. Long of 1194 West First street, according to announcement today by Le Page & Lantz, real estate dealers, with offices in the Spurgeon building. The consideration was said to be approximately $4,000. Other transactions negotiated by this firm include the transfer of a lot in the 1000 block on West Sixth street from H. W. Lawrence to William Sackman, and the transfer of house and lot at 464 Hickey street and belonging to A. H. Wilson, to Mrs. T. Ulm, who lives on North Ross street. The consideration received by Lawrence was not stated, while the price involved in the sale of the Wilson property was said to be approximately $3,000.

NEW TITLE MAN IS ADDED TO COMPANY

The Abstract & Title Guaranty Co. has arranged for another expert title man to be added to the force employed by the company. The name of the new man is D. L. Adams and he is coming to the Abstract & Title Guaranty Co. from the Title Insurance & Trust Co. of Los Angeles. Adams is what is known as an experienced "plant" man. This week he will move his household goods to the Hankey residence on Halladay St. His family consists of his wife and two children.

KIDDIES RIOT CAUSED BY CHRISTMAS GIFTS

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—Seven thousand Christmas presents. Seven thousand invited children. Seven thousand uninvited children. One riot.

Six precincts called on to send police reserves to restore order. That is the story of the Christmas festival arranged by the Peoples' Liberty Chorus and the police department. Many children, including several cripples, were knocked down and trampled upon in the wild scramble for presents.

Dolls, candy and other presents were snatched by eager youngsters—only to be re-snatched by others more eager.

FINDEISEN PROPERTY AT TUSTIN IS SOLD

Ten acres of land located on the Southern Pacific right-of-way at Tustin has been sold by Louis H. Findeisen to Theodore Meyer. The consideration was reported to have been approximately $20,000. The real estate firm of LePage & Lantz was intermediary in the transaction.

SHIELDS SELLS ORANGE GROVE FOR $4,000 AN ACRE

Local Man Disposes of Fine Property In Placentia District to Hugh Smith

Martin H. Shields of this city has sold his fine ten acre Valencia grove in the Placentia district to Hugh G. Smith of about $40,000. The grove is said to be one of the very best in the section in which it is located. The consideration was strictly for the land values, as there are no house improvements. Harris Bros. of this city were agents in the transaction.

H. D. Gerrard has sold two lots on the east side of Sycamore street just north of the Sloyd school on Church street to Wayland Wood, Harris Bros. being the agents. It is understood that Mr. Wood has sold one of the lots to Geo. Stovall, and also the True apartment house at the corner of Sycamore and Church streets, which Wood bought from the county at auction a few weeks ago. It is reported Stovall will move the apartment house to the lot just purchased.

Effie Laupheimer has sold two and one-half lots at the corner of First and Parton to W. Frank Harris taking a house and lot at Ocean Park as part of the consideration.

Harris Bros. recently have sold the residence of Miss Bertha Clough at 1322 W. Fourth to J. W. Griffin.

NATION-WIDE SEARCH IS BEING MADE FOR MISSING SCIENTIST

An organized nation wide search is being instituted for Dr. Arthur Lachman, of San Francisco, who mysteriously disappeared on December 11. The last heard of him was when he was seen by a friend on a street in San Francisco at the noon hour of that day.

Dr. Lachman is well known in scientific circles. No reason for his disappearance has been assigned by his family or his friends other than the fear of a sudden mental aberration, resulting in a complete loss of memory and perhaps development of a double identity.

In an advertisement published in this issue of this newspaper there will be found a complete description of Dr. Lachman and the effects on his person at the time of his disappearance.

In order to enlist the interest of all outsiders in the search, a reward of $1,000 has been offered for Dr. Lachman's recovery. Communications should be addressed to the Chief of Police, San Francisco.

PAYS $3000 AN ACRE FOR VALENCIA GROVE

C. A. Kelly has sold through the agency of W. J. Wells of this city a ten acre Valencia grove on the boulevard between Santa Ana and Anaheim, to F. A. McFarlan, the price being $30,000. The trees are five years old.

Last of African Bushmen Discovered By Expedition

Native Aged 116 Years Is Found Living In Veritable Dog Kennel

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 26.—Jante, which is pronounced "Yankee," aged 116, as near as can be estimated, and probably the last survivor of his race, is still alive in Africa. It has been learned here. He was found recently living in a hovel, and his newest photograph has just been received here.

Jante is an African bushman, which race is about extinct. He is the only native alive that accompanied Livingston on his famous missionary journeys through Africa. Wearing tattered tennis shoes, ancient trousers, a ragged vest, and badly torn overcoat, clothes he has worn for forty years, he lives in a veritable dog kennel. The kennel is three feet high, the same width and five feet long and is made of a wooden frame covered with flattened gasoline cans. He was found at Prieksha, South Africa, by the Smithsonian-Universal African Expedition.

300 WILL ATTEND ELKS' JINX HERE

Final preparations were made today by committees having in charge the Christmas Jinx to be given by Santa Ana Lodge No. 794, B. P. O. E., on Monday evening. Three hundred members of the lodge have notified Secretary W. W. Wasser that they would be present.

One of the principal features of the affair will be a turkey dinner, which is scheduled to begin at 6:30 p.m. A male quartette has been secured from Los Angeles for the occasion. Other plans have been made, but these are being kept veiled by the various committees.

HAS PRACTICAL WAY TO HELP CITY GROW

In order that many people arriving in Santa Ana seeking places to live may be accommodated so as the facilities of the city can accommodate them, the co-operation of the people of the city is sought by J. C. Metzgar, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

"Every day we have inquiries for houses, housekeeping rooms, any place in which people can live until they find some place to make home," said Metzgar. "In order to meet the situation as best we may, it will be necessary for us to have always at hand a list of possible locations. Anyone, therefore, who has furnished rooms, housekeeping rooms, or houses to let should telephone to the Chamber of Commerce."

BARNEY CLINARD, WALTER COOK PURCHASERS OF TRACT

Forty Acres In Oranges and Lemons, Ninety In Walnuts

Setting a new record on land values in the Irvine section, Walter Cook and Barney Clinard today are the owners of the 130 acre ranch of Alex Jeffrey, for which they paid approximately $230,000. This is one of the largest deals made in this section in recent months. The purchase price is approximately $1700 per acre. The property lies between Tustin and Irvine.

Of the 130 acres, about forty acres is in lemons and oranges and the rest is in walnuts.

This property was developed by Alex Jeffrey, who formerly farmed on the San Joaquin and who now lives at San Fernando, where he has a big ranch. A strip of the ranch is just north of the William Jeffrey place on the state highway. Most of it lies between the state highway and the Santa Fe railroad. It includes a small acreage and a small house east of the state highway. Two good wells and pumping plants are located on the property.

Alarm In Shanghai Caused By Bandits Torturing Victims

TOKIO, Dec. 26.—Many armed bandits, who kidnap their victims and hold them for ransom, are causing alarm in Shanghai.

Ransoms demanded vary from as little as $10 to $50,000. Often promises to pay these sums are exacted by means of fearful tortures. One man was tortured by burning incense sticks placed against his body until he consented to pay an impossible sum.

These gangs generally are composed of about thirty men, although some number as high as fifty. They are always well provided with arms and ammunition. Raids by local soldiers on dens of the brigands have been of little avail, the soldiers usually returning much the worse for wear, minus the bandits.

Authorities believe it likely heads of some of the brigands soon will adorn the city gates. This was the fate of others captured here last spring.

RAY TO BUILD THREE NEW BUNGALOW HOMES

One of the best items of news released for some time is that Mr. Harry Ray will build three new bungalows on his residential property, says the Brea Progress. This is a pretty location for homes and the houses are to be modern in every way. The contract has been let to Contractor Wilson and work will begin at once.

Two of the bungalows will be of five rooms each. The other one of four rooms Mr. Ray will reserve for his personal use. They will be for sale at any time either before or after completion and if sold Mr. Ray will use the proceeds in immediately building on other property in town.

This shows enterprise and it also shows faith in the town that will be amply justified. We can all feel pride in the local citizen who turns home-builder, for homes mean very much to our town just now.

MANY HUNDREDS AT CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL

Mayor J. G. Mitchell. A Christmas message was brought by Rev. J. A. Stevenson, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

"More people today rejoice because Christ was born than ever before," said Rev. Stevenson. "Let this Christmas more than ever be celebrated with Christ in your heart. Welcome Him into your hearts and forever dwell in the presence of your King."

In telling phrase, Rev. H. Eumelen, pastor of St. Joseph's church, pictured the birth of Christ and pointed out what the birth of Christ meant and will always mean to the world. He said that the spirit of Christ is such that it brings a blessing to each person who lives with that spirit. The birth of Christ meant much to the world and it will always mean much to those who come to Christ in meekness of spirit.

Rev. Oliver pronounced the benediction, closing exercises that were in every way a wonderful demonstration of the Christmas spirit that prevailed Santa Ana and Santa Ana homes throughout the Christmas season.

Southern California

SANTA BARBARA, Dec. 26.—Edwin F. Smith, 66, prominent Californian, is dead at the home of his son-in-law T. M. Storke. Smith at one time was state property agent and had been connected with many enterprises in California. During the early twenties Smith was secretary of the constitutional convention and for 25 years as secretary of the State Agricultural Association. He also served a number of terms as state senator.

EL CENTRO, Dec. 26.—Advices from Washington where the Imperial Valley committee is working hard for the all-American canal provided for in the revised Kettner bill, are most encouraging, so far as the passage of the bill is concerned. The question is raised, however, as to the appropriation. The new bill does not provide for the appropriation, which must be obtained from the budget committee.

PASADENA, Dec. 26.—Christmas cheer was dispensed in Pasadena through many organizations and individuals. Following its custom of years, the local Elks lodge gave a party for orphans and needy children in Clune's theater. More than 150 baskets containing Christmas dinners were sent out by the Overland Club to the needy. The Salvation Army also distributed dinner baskets.

ALHAMBRA, Dec. 26.—Christmas cheer was delivered to the poor by the Woodmen of the World in the shape of thirty-two boxes of the best food they could procure. The Elks also played Santa Ana and many children were invited to come to their rooms, where a beautiful tree was loaded with candy and toys.

REDLANDS, Dec. 26.—Mrs. Lucile M. Walker has offered a reward of $100 for information leading to the arrest of the person guilty of poisoning her cocker spaniel dog. This is the second case of dog poisoning this week. The Humane Society is offering a $25 reward in each case.

LONG BEACH, Dec. 26.—In memory of the late Miss Jane Harnett, one of the high school faculty from the time the school was established until her death last year, and founder of the school's student government system, the Jane Harnett memorial fund has been created to aid needy high school graduates to continue their education. A scholarship fund, started at her suggestion in 1904, will be a part of the memorial fund, to be deducted by the alumni, December 30.

ALHAMBRA, Dec. 26.—Alta Hooker, graduate of the high school and of the U. S. School of Fine Arts, scored highest in the examination for the census takers. She is one of eight in Alhambra who took the examination, and as she received the highest markings, she will receive the choice of districts.

YUNGBLUTH NOW OWNER FISHER PROPERTY

ANAHEIM, Dec. 26.—The largest transaction in downtown realty this year, giving concrete evidence of the enormously increased value of business property here, is the purchase by F. A. Yungbluth, well-known clothier, of the Fisher building.

This fine three-story block, with 60-foot frontage in the heart of the business section on Center street, is understood to have cost Mr. Yungbluth $34,000. The building has changed hands several times in a comparatively short time, presumably at an increased figure.

The purchase makes Mr. Yungbluth one of the largest if not the largest holder of business property in the city.

May Have New Opera House

It is authoritatively reported that a new opera house and movie theater will soon be built on West Center street near Lemon. A well-known local business man has the enterprise under consideration and gives out the information that the building will be in course of construction early in the new year. This city has two fine theaters, but the town is growing rapidly and the new showhouse no doubt would be a profitable venture. This city draws amusement lovers from a vast area, people coming here from many miles to see the movies. From the fact so far learned, the new theater will line up with the best to be found in the larger cities and will be a decided addition to the architectural beauty of the downtown district.

The promoter announces that none but the very best attractions will be staged, while the musical features will be of the best.

Building Bungalows

Ross Bros., of the Orange County Realty Company, who have just completed a fine modern bungalow, and started another, have taken out permits for two more. Applications for permits the last few days include:

Evangelical church, per F. H. Doescher, frame residence, 24x36, on South Helena, between Center and Oak streets; cost, $2500.

Orange County Realty Company, per Walter J. Ross, two residences, 20x33 and 20x42, and two garages, 14x16 and 10x16, cost $7000, on East Adele street, between Smily and Claudina streets.

Mrs. Gertie Goodrich, garage, 12x16, rear West Broadway, between Helena and Palm streets; cost, $100.

New Arrivals Building

John, Ed and Orville Pember, who recently arrived here from Hecla, S. D., and immediately purchased lots on West street, have already started building operations. The Pembers are building contractors and with F. E. Getty, an associate, who also has just arrived from Hecla, will get into the building game here.

Following are this week's building permits:

L. N. McMackin, contractor, residence, 28x32, on West Center street, between West and Ohio streets; cost, $4000.

E. J. Pember, shed, 16x24, on West street, between Pearl and Diamond streets; cost, $300.

E. J. Pember, repair frame building on West street, between Pearl and Diamond streets; cost, $200.

J. J. Vetter, garage, 20x30, rear Santa Ana street, between Kroeger and Atchison streets; cost, $200.

Sells Valencia Grove

D. H. Benner has sold the ten-acre Valencia orange grove which he recently purchased of the Long estate, northwest of Garden Grove. The purchaser is Arthur Davis of Chicago, who will make extensive improvements. The purchase price is not given, but it is understood that Mr. Davis got a bargain, as orange orchards are steadily climbing in price and are in big demand.

SELLS RANCH TO RICHFIELD OIL COMPANY WILL HANDLE REAL ESTATE

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Dec. 26.—H. Larter, the well known retired rancher, has decided to engage in the real estate and loan business, and his office is at his residence, 112 Eighth street. Mr. Larter will confine his activities to farm lands, with which he is very familiar.

Larter recently sold his 40 acre ranch north of Huntington Beach to L. C. Preston for $36,000. Mr. Larter made a great reputation for growing crops of corn and potatoes on "the same ground." There are samples of his crop grown last year on display at the News office, and it is seldom that finer products are to be seen anywhere. The same crop was grown for 7 consecutive years. There has been considerable activity in real estate circles and some valuable property has been transferred.

W. D. Seely reports the sale of the house at 1806 Pine street, one of the new ones built by the Huntington Beach Co., from Mrs. Davy to Marshall Clark of Anaheim. Mr. and Mrs. Clark expect to occupy the house in about two weeks.

Oliver Hittendahl, a recent arrival from Montana, has bought through Mr. Seely a house and two lots at Eighth and Acacia.

A. C. Deems, a traveling man of Los Angeles has purchased the Chris Egbert ranch, south of the R. Courreges place for a consideration of $3,000 for the 20 acres.

W. D. McKinney of Garden Grove has purchased the 40 acre Garcia tract on the boulevard for a consideration of $15,000, and he and his family have taken possession of the property. This sale was made jointly by Mr. Seely and Kyle Howard of the First National Bank.

Albert Steck has sold his 15 acres of peatland to Seymour B. Wilson, a brother of C. C. Wilson, who recently came to Huntington Beach. The price was $700 per acre.

Mr. Seely has also sold the Blanche L. Brown property on the East Side to A. J. Nail.

E. C. Wright reports the sale of lot 16, Mountain View tract, containing one acre to Miss Minnie Steele and Miss Ruth Munro. He has also sold the Rosenberg house on the East Side to C. R. Johnson, who will move it to his 10 acre tract on Delaware avenue.

Mr. Wright and H. Larter sold the 20 acre ranch of Boyden G. Hall, near the Ocean View school house to J. T. Dilley of Huntington Beach for $600 per acre.

JAIL BUSINESS BAD, WOMAN MAY RESIGN

FREDERICK, Okla., Dec. 26.—"The jail business is on the bum" is the opinion of Mrs. L. C. Hadaway, jailer of Tillman county, and the only woman jailer in the state. Mrs. Hadaway said she is going to quit the job unless more prisoners arrive. The jail has been the home for herself and children. Seventy-five cents a day in cash is allowed for boarding the prisoners. But there are no prisoners. Or at least they are not in sufficient numbers to make the jail a paying proposition.

OLD-TIMER FIDDLER.

FREMONT, Oo., Dec. 26.—"Rat" Gould, champion old-time fiddler of America, celebrated his eightieth birthday anniversary with a dance in the Mutual Aid Hall in Bellevue. "Rat" furnished the music. Old-fashioned dances were revived.

Home-made Candles at home-made prices. Nougats, fudges, creams, brittles. Lion Kandy Kitchen, 211 West Fourth St.

NEW RESIDENTS HALL FAMILY NUMBER 23

Twenty-three residents have been added to Santa Ana and vicinity in recent months through the location here of Leroy Hall, former banker of Crawford, Neb., and who bought the Babson home on North Main street.

His daughter, Mrs. Maude H. Chase, and niece, Miss Prudence Macomber, who have been here for some months with the Hall family on Main street, have bought the handsome residence property of W. E. Watson at 1701 Bush street, now occupied by H. P. Farrar and family, the consideration being $11,000. Carden & Liebig were the agents.

Mrs. Chase is an artist and Miss Macomber an instructor in dramatics, and they will establish studios at their home when they get possession and move in.

Two sons of Hall, with their families recently have come here to locate permanently. Claire and family are living on the Arthur Hoefler place at First and Newport roads. Tustin, and another son and family will take possession of the J. R. Porter property on Batavia street, Orange, recently purchased.

There are twenty-three members all told in the Hall families and that of Mrs. Chase, all locating here within the past year.

BOOTLEGGERS RAISE BOOZE TO $20 BOTTLE

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 26.—The "bootlegger" has jumped his price for a bottle of standard whisky to $20 and he and his kind appear to have all they can do to supply the demand by their well-known secret manipulations.

There also has been a jump in the price a gallon of the unpretentious cider. Dealers in the latter beverage say the demand is now so great that the price for sweet cider has been jumped to 80 cents a gallon.

The closer you watch your household bills, the more you'll see the wisdom of using Schilling Tea.

It is rich in tea-flavor, and makes more cups of tea than any other tea we know of at any price—is actually cheaper per cup than tea costing a great deal less.

And then think of the pleasure of drinking fine tea! Really fine tea, at less cost per cup than common tea!

There are four flavors of Schilling Tea—Japan, Ceylon-India, Oolong, English Breakfast. All one quality. In parchment-lined moisture-proof packages. At grocers everywhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Jones moved Monday to the ranch at Fairview, where Jones will farm extensively.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Gisler had as week end guests at their home, William Gisler and Frank and Ralph Daily of Camarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Talbert drove to Long Beach Friday taking Miss Talbert's mother, Mrs. M. L. Thurman, who met her son, Will Brady, there, and accompanied him to his home in Hollywood, where she was to stay overnight, leaving early Saturday morning for Hollywood, Imperial county. Mrs. Thurman will spend the winter at the home of her daughter Mrs. Ben Rogers, who resides at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Eastman entertained at a delightful family dinner party at their home Christmas day. Covers were laid for seven at the prettily appointed table. Those present beside the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Eastman, being his mother, Mrs. Addie Eastman and brother Harry Eastman, who came down from Hemet for the occasion; Mrs. Eastman's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kravitz and Elmer Harding, of Santa Ana.

Walter Lamb began plowing on his 150 acre ranch the past week.

S. E. Talbert was quite ill the first of the week due to a severe cold.

Three teams from Talbert ranch are hauling the tile from the La Balsa Tile factory to Greenville at present. The tile is being laid on a ranch there. In the neighborhood of seventy tons is called for in the contract.

The Orange Fertilizer Co. that has been hauling bean straw from this community since before the close of the bean harvest is this week hauling from the Buck ranch. Two trucks are kept on the job and many hundreds of tons have been hauled from this section for use on groves and ranches.

Hugo Lamb is having a ten inch well put down on his ranch by Frank Pace.

Mrs. L. T. Wells was the honored guest Thursday at a dinner given at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Berry Stice at her home in Santa Ana. The center piece of the prettily appointed table was a lovely birthday cake bearing the required number of tiny tapers as reminders of the natal occasion. Upon reaching home that evening following the

Laguna Beach

LAGUNA BEACH, Dec. 26.—Conway Griffith left Monday for Los Angeles to stay until after the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Kingman.

Henri DeKruif has been in Los Angeles for several days attending the etching and paint exhibitions and the symphony concert.

Miss Pauline Jahraus is home for the holidays. She does not return to the Normal until the 4th of January.

Mr. and Mrs. George Webster of Arch Beach are spending Christmas in Pasadena.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Strong of Basalt, Colorado, are spending a few days in Laguna. They left Basalt last July and have been traveling in their faithful Ford ever since. They came with the intention of settling in Southern California and have chosen Escondido as a most desirable place in which to live. "We are tired of shivering all winter in Colorado," said Mrs. Strong, "and are going to settle down where it is warm."

Margaret and Helen Gaylord are down from Clarmont for a few days.

Mrs. Edwards and a party of young people have been spending the past week at Mrs. Edwards' cottage on the front above the hotel.

Fletcher H. Hayward of the United States Forest Service is spending a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Evans. Mr. Hayward has charge of the district back of Mt. Wilson, in the Sierra Madre range, and reports much snow on the high peaks. Last week he took out eighty-five members of the Pasadena Boy Scouts for four days of fire-break building and fire fighting instruction in the upper Arroyos Seco Canon.

Perry was down Tuesday last, and took back with him ten Christmas trees secured at the Tully ranch at Huntington Beach for use on ship-board Christmas day when the sailors entertained hundreds of Los Angeles children. The major portion of Perry's leave was given as his due, owing to his efforts carried out as one of the decoration committee.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Harper and family and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harper were Christmas guests at the home of their son and brother, Harry Harper, at his home at Huntington Beach, Thursday. The sumptuous repast served to the party of eleven was enjoyed by all, the other members of the dinner party beside those already mentioned being Mrs. Harry Harper's mother, Mrs. Lena Patterson and brother, Earl Patterson, who are at present making their home with Mr. and Mrs. Harper. The pleasant day, surrounded by relatives proved a most happy companion to the host, who at last Christmas time was with the A. E. F. Division.

Ranchers in general hereabout are busy plowing and getting their land into condition for planting. Teams and caterpillars are all on the job and this busy season will last for some weeks to come.

Westminster

WESTMINSTER, Dec. 26.—A very pretty wedding service occurred in the Church of Christ, corner Broadway and Walnut, Santa Ana, at 8 p. m. Tuesday, when Miss Doris Thorpe of that place became the bride of Fred Parr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parr of Westminster. The ceremony was performed by the pastor of the church. The bride was charming in a dress of cream georgette and short bridal veil, and was accompanied by Miss Florence Thompson in blue georgette. Orla Batters stood with the groom.

The happy pair left immediately on their wedding trip and on their return will reside in Santa Ana, where Mr. Parr is employed.

The two furnished apartments in the postoffice building have been rented by Mrs. George Abbott to employes on the Golder ranch, as the bunk houses on the ranch are full. There is need here of a good restaurant or place where lunches may be procured, as there are rooms for rent in the hotel building but no place to get meals.

Miss Stambaugh of Santa Ana, who has been nursing in the Edwards home, left on Sunday and Mrs. Culp is assisting in her place.

M. Terry has purchased a new Fordson tractor and is trying it out on his ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Mofford and daughter, Cora, attended the rehearsal Tuesday evening, for the Christmas exercises of the Salvation Army.

Sunday afternoon visitors at the W. J. Edwards home were Mr. and Mrs. E. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Sturge and son Ray of El Monte, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Edwards of Orange, and Mr. and Mrs. P. McClintock of this place. Mrs. Ward is twin sister of Mrs. Eugene Edwards, and were known before their marriage as Misses Zeldia and Elda Culp.

Miss Henrietta Dickey arrived home from Stanford Saturday evening, taking her family very much by surprise, as they were not looking for her. This is the first Christmas she has spent at home during her course at Stanford. She expects to take a summer course after the close of school.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Day and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Penhall spent Sunday in Los Angeles.

H. B. Anderson and H. R. Hansen have had their places plowed by tractor the past week.

The Turner Patterson place has recently been sold to people from Rialto who moved in this last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Snyder, Miss Opal Snyder and Miss Lorene Baker attended the wedding of Fred Parr and Miss Doris Thorp in Santa Ana Tuesday evening.

Mrs. H. B. Anderson spent Friday night in Santa Ana with her mother, Mrs. C. Phillips.

Mr. Fyterspott received a telegram Tuesday from his brother in Belgium containing the sad news of the death of his sister. The cause of death was not stated. She had two sons in the Belgian army.

CANADIAN SHIPPING SHOWS BIG INCREASE

MONTREAL, Que., Dec. 26.—Canadian shipbuilding increased from eighteen vessels in 1914 to fifty-nine at the end of June, 1919, according to a report of Lloyd's registry just made public here. The corresponding tonnage in 1914 and 1919 were given as 14,184 and 155,542, respectively.

The Minnedosa, 13,972 tons, heads the list of the five largest Canadian ships constructed in 1919.

The port of Montreal has been closed for the season, so far as ocean-going vessels are concerned. The last ship to depart from here was the freighter Bassa for South African ports.

BILL FOR TOYS HIGH ON ACCOUNT OF WAR

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 26.—Undaunted by sky-high prices, Cleveland poured out a shower of gold estimated at $4,000,000 for its Christmas tree and the trimmings, this year.

That figure, estimated by various store managers, exceeds by about a half million dollars last year's outlay for the entertainment of the white-whiskered, gift-bearing guest. And these same store managers reluctantly added that the extra half million does not mean a heavier bag of presents but represents instead, an offering at the altar of higher prices.

Reflections of the world war were found to a greater degree than ever in Johnny's playhouse. Mother and father, sister and brother loaded up on cannon, airplanes, tanks, battleships, rifles, automobiles, lead soldiers and battlefields. Little Mary had her dolls and the usual layout of dishes, toy houses, etc., but one thing at least she had in common with Johnny.

Not one toy bore the familiar line "Made in Germany."

Toy dealers said that "all their wares were made either in the United States of Japan. And the givers, they said, examined each toy carefully for its trade mark."

Dance with us every Saturday evening at Balboa Pavilion. Chapman orchestra.

Garden Grove

GARDEN GROVE, Dec. 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Urwick and family of Los Angeles spent Christmas with Mrs. Urwick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Niles.

The Federal States Company has decided to move their grocery store into the Jack Jentges building January 1, instead of the Price block, as originally intended.

Frank McConnell enjoyed Sunday in Los Angeles.

Milo Allen, Claud Crosby, C. A. Emerson and J. G. Allen returned Saturday from a few days' goose and duck hunting trip to Buena Vista Lake, between Maricopa and Bakersfield. They report game very plentiful.

The largest edition of the Garden Grove News ever published was given to its patrons last week when Editor King, assisted by R. Beers Loas, worked over time and were rewarded by a smile from all who read the sixteen pages of the newest, breeziest and best edition ever sent out from the office.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Jackson and guest, Miss Jennetta Hosler, went to Los Angeles Wednesday to spend Christmas with their daughters and their families. They enjoyed a family reunion Christmas day, when all of their children and grandchildren met at the home of Mrs. G. B. Capps for dinner.

R. Beers Loas has gone to Hollywood to spend Christmas with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilbur and son, Earl, Jr., went to Camarillo to spend Christmas with Mr. Wilbur's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bosey went to South Pasadena Wednesday to spend Christmas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Black.

After spending a few days at the home of her father, Charles Hudson, Mrs. Leonard Thierfelder left Friday for her home, northwest of town.

E. A. Blackmer and son Paul, who have been doing some clean-up work at the nursery, left Tuesday for a few days at Santa Susana.

Miss Opal Hudson, who is a freshman in the Free Methodist Seminary at Herman, is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McKinnon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Kerner spent Christmas in Los Angeles with the former's cousin, Fred Kerner, and family. They returned Friday.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. A. F. Mills last Friday afternoon. Mrs. A. J. Chaffee had charge of the devotion and chose a Scripture reading in keeping with the Christmas time. Mrs. L. H. Mills of Orange gave a very interesting talk on the topic of "The Heroines of W. C. T. U. History," making special mention of Miss Frances E. Willard and Mrs. Lillian Stevens in the founding of W. C. T. U. history. Mrs. Irvine German sweetly sang "Home's Love Light." Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Ruth.

Members of Local 315 please attend the meeting Monday, December 29. Important.

It's a "Thriller!"

and Everyone Is Invited to See It!

Come and see two young girls dare death a dozen times in driving their motor car to the bottom of the Devil's Punch Bowl.

THE MOST THRILLING DRIVE EVER MADE!

The public is invited to come and see it Friday and Saturday night from 7 to 10 p. m. on the half hour.

You will never forget the thrill with which you watch these girls.
